

Book talk

Work in groups of 3-4.

Choose a book you have read. Tell about it: I'll tell you about _____ story.
It's a _____ story.

Choose a question. Answer it. Partners, ask more questions: Why? When...? Who...? What...? Where...? How...? Did...? Do...? Is...? Are...?

Describe one character.

What was interesting?

Describe one character's personality.

What did you like?

What did you dislike?

What was a problem in the story?

How does the character get past the problem?

Which character did you like?

What character didn't you like?

If they make a movie, who should be the stars? (your country's actors).

How did the story make you feel?

Which character is the most like your personality?

If you were the author, what would you change?

What do you think will happen to the characters after this story?

If they made a movie, who should be the stars? (foreign actors).

What is the same as your life?

Can you think of a different title?

Describe the character's home (from your imagination).

Write one more: