

Use this “Definition formula” to explain things from your culture.

① The group	+	② How it is different than other things in the group	+	③ extra information.
Examples:					Answers:
This is a food		that is made from cabbage.		We eat it every meal.	It's kimchi . (Korea)
This is a heater		that's in a low table.		We use it in winter.	It's a kotatsu . (Japan)
These are clothes		that are worn for horse-riding shows.		They are made from leather and velvet.	They're charros . (Mexico)
These are decorations		that dancers wear on their fingers. They're gold.		They make fingers look longer.	They're form lep . (Thailand)

Think Time. Think of 4 items from your culture. They might be things with no name in English. Write definitions in the boxes. Write the names on the back. Then work in groups of 4 or 5. Cut out the boxes. Mix up the definitions. Read one. Who can guess the name.

- Ideas:
- food • holidays • clothing
 - buildings • things in a house
 - everyday items (now or in the past)

① It is a _____
 They are _____ (the group)

② that _____ (how different from other things in group)

③ _____ (extra information)

① It is a _____
 They are _____ (the group)

② that _____ (how different from other things in group)

③ _____ (extra information)

① It is a _____
 They are _____ (the group)

② that _____ (how different from other things in group)

③ _____ (extra information)

① It is a _____
 They are _____ (the group)

② that _____ (how different from other things in group)

③ _____ (extra information)